STERLING MORTON A CANDIDATE

He Would Accept a Nomination for President by Sound-Money Democrats.

Lincoln, Neb., July 29.—Secretary of Agriculture, J. Sterling Morton will be a candidate for the Presidency by the sound-money Democrats.

A conference attended by Mr. Morton and a number of prominent Democrats of the State opened to Bryan was held at Nebraska City on Sunday. Every effort has been made to keep the fact that Morton is a candidate for the Presidency a secret, but Mr. Morton's candidacy was discovered. He was prevailed upon to become a candidate and will write a letter announcing that he would accept the nomination.

The sound-money Democrats of the State favor a State and national ticket. A conference of the leaders will be held in Omaha in a few days to decide upon the date for the State Convention.

CATERING TOM WATSON.
He Answers a Telegram from the Constitution-Sewall Must Retire.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 29.—The Atlanta Constitution, desiring to learn just what the Hon. Thomas E. Watson, the People's party Vice-President nominee, thought of the political situation, telegraphed him to-day as follows:

"In your letter sent out last night from Augusta you say that if the Democrats are ready for a fair division of electors so are you, and that you will not be divided on the issue. In the field, please give the Constitution, upon receipt of this, your idea of a fair division. On the basis of what you do think apportionment of electors in the several States should be, kindly define your position on this point in order that we may give it publicity."

"Replying to yours, I state that what I have heretofore said was based upon the fact that I was not a candidate for the Presidency and that I was not a candidate for the Presidency. I am not a candidate for the Presidency and I am not a candidate for the Presidency."

Upon receipt of this the Constitution telegraphed Mr. Watson again as follows:

"Your statement sent out last night you say that unless Sewall retires you know of but two ways to elect a President. One is to elect a President and the other is to elect a President. I am not a candidate for the Presidency and I am not a candidate for the Presidency."

Mr. Watson's answer to the Constitution is as follows: "I am not a candidate for the Presidency and I am not a candidate for the Presidency. I am not a candidate for the Presidency and I am not a candidate for the Presidency."

Progress of the Movement.—News from New England States.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Messrs. Bryan of Indiana and Robbins of Illinois, members of the National Executive Committee of the sound-money Democrats, were in conference at headquarters most of to-day, working on the organization in numerous States, receiving telegrams on the subject and sending orders to leaders in the new party movement who are taking the initiative.

N. M. Edwards, Jr., ex-Mayor of Boston, sent word that he was coming to the National Committee meeting at Indianapolis as the representative of Massachusetts. William H. Cresser of Bethel, Vt., who was a delegate to Chicago, telegraphed that a National Convention would be held in Boston on August 1st.

Mr. Cresser telegraphed that a National Convention would be held in Boston on August 1st. He also telegraphed that a National Convention would be held in Boston on August 1st.

From W. B. Haldeman, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, word came that the Chicago Tribune would support the sound-money movement.

Andrew McLean of the Brooklyn Times Steps Into the Political Arena.

Ex-Register Hugh McLaughlin and his lieutenant in the regular Democratic organization in New York City, John W. Wilson, have been elected to the position of chairman of the Brooklyn Times.

Senator Hill is Silent.

He Will Not Say Whether He Is For or Against Bryan.

ALBANY, July 29.—Senator Hill retired very early when he reached Wolfert's Roost last night, and did not come down town until this afternoon. He says he will be here for some days, running away occasionally to escape the heat and secure a rest.

BRYAN'S COMING SPEECH.

AT WORK FOR HOURS ON THE MADISON SQUARE EFFORT.

In the campaign he is expected to talk the "New York Evening Post" says. He has lost the battle within the last few days. To-night the stereotyped question elicited a querulous "Not yet" that was manifestly indicative of unrest. "Only one thing has been decided," he said, "and that is that I shall meet the Committee on Nominations in Madison Square Garden, New York on Aug. 12."

Mr. Bryan will probably leave here about the 8th or 9th of August, and Mrs. Bryan will go with him. All arrangements for his personal movements beyond the trip to New York and the visit to Mr. Sewall are left with Senator Jones, and no word has come from the manager yet.

Mr. Charles D. Lane, Chairman of the National Committee of the Silver party, who came to Lincoln yesterday to see Mr. Bryan, remained over and made another visit to the candidate's headquarters. During the day a party of Misses called and paid their respects. Mr. Bryan found time to spend several hours on his Madison Square Garden speech of acceptance.

It is possible that Mr. Bryan's speech of acceptance in New York will be remarkable in more ways than one. In addition to sounding new depths of oratory he may add another issue to the silver hue and cry. It has been known here for several days that Mr. Bryan is not exactly pleased with the movement of things in the silver party. The movement is very much disheartened at the apparent lack of interest in the cause of free silver in the Eastern States, and no secret is made of the fact that the advisability of rehabilitating the free trade tariff for revenue only issue for special use in the silver party is being considered.

Mr. Bryan has acknowledged that it appears to be necessary to fall back on the tariff as the only means of wounding the bolting Democrats, and he may put out a feeler in his New York speech. If he does not, then the tariff utterances will come a little later. The idea is to take Bryan's speech as a signal for the silver party to fall back on the tariff as the only means of wounding the bolting Democrats, and he may put out a feeler in his New York speech.

THE STATE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE ENDORSES MCKINLEY.

IT Took Three Hours to Do It, and the Vote Was 48 to 37.

Denver, Col., July 29.—The Republican State Committee, by a vote of 48 to 37 to-day, adopted a resolution endorsing the St. Louis platform and the nominees McKinley and Hobart, and urging the State Convention to select Presidential electors pledged to vote for the candidates of the national Republican party.

This result, however, was not obtained until three hours had been consumed in the most bitter debate, replete with personal abuse and displays of passion.

Irving Howbert, Chairman, retired from the chair when this vote was announced, he having previously indicated a desire to resign from the committee. J. W. L. Hedges was elected to succeed him.

The new Chairman announced as a rule to be observed that all members of the State Committee who did not intend to vote for McKinley and Hobart would be asked to leave the room, adding that should they decline to do so they would not be recognized there nor permitted to be heard.

This was a direct challenge, and an instantaneous explosion and personal violence seemed to follow. The members of the committee were by securing the floor, and begged the committee to listen to her.

William H. Hedges, Chairman, gave the bolters time to reply. This quieted the men considerably, and after protracted discussion the committee agreed to endorse McKinley and Hobart.

ALLISON LOOKS FOR VICTORY.
Says Gold Literature and Speeches Will Carry the Farmer in Kansas.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Senator Allison came from his Iowa home yesterday and stopped in Chicago on his way to an Eastern summer resort, where he will stay two or three weeks preparing himself physically for active participation in the political campaign.

The French coinage question is an old one, said the Senator. "It is the underlying principle of greenbackism. It has been discussed in one phase or another in campaigns for years. I have found some silver sentiment among the Republicans of my State, chiefly among the farmers, but it will be overcome with plenty of good literature and by the arguments of speakers among the wavering ones. They will be found voting right on election day."

Mr. Allison's constant presence in the State of Illinois has been a great help to the cause of McKinley. He has been found voting right on election day.

75 MEN SINK WITH A GUNBOAT.

The German Vessel Little Gown Down in a Typhoon Off China's Coast.

LONDON, July 29.—A despatch to Lloyd's of Chifu, on the north coast of the Shan-Tung promontory, says that the German gunboat, the Albatross, with seventy-five of her officers and men, according to present advice only ten of her crew were saved. They have landed on the southeast promontory.

SHANGHAI, July 29.—A despatch from Chifu says that the Albatross was lost in a typhoon on July 28 at a point ten miles north of the southeast promontory, which is a low reef-girted island lying about thirty miles south of the Shan-Tung promontory. Only ten of those belonging to the ship were saved. All the others, including the officers, perished.

BRUSSELS, July 29.—The office at the Imperial Admiralty confirm the report of the loss of the Albatross.

The Reichsanzeiger, the official paper, publishes this afternoon a despatch from Emperor William, who is now on a yachting cruise, and who expresses his sympathy with the navy in the loss of the Albatross and the relatives of those who were lost. The message is addressed to Admiral von Knorr, chief of the Baltic naval station.

The Albatross was a single-screw iron vessel of 480 tons, and was built at Danzig in 1878. She was 139 feet 1 inch long, 25 feet 3 inches beam, and her mean draft of water was 10 feet 8 inches. Her engines were of 340 indicated horse power, and her speed was 9.5 knots. She mounted only two guns.

THE SOCIALIST CONGRESS.
Anarchists Still Make the Most Noise—A Hopeless Muddle.

LONDON, July 29.—The International Socialist Trades Congress resumed its session to-day. Up to the present time the Congress has done nothing but examine the credentials of delegates, and of those examined thus far only two-thirds have been passed upon as entitling their holders to take part in the deliberations of the Congress.

Harmony prevailed during the early part of the session, but the question of the re-introduction of the question of the admission of Anarchist delegates, who, though nominally excluded from taking part in the proceedings, are actually attending the sittings and voting as trades unionists. The whole affair is a hopeless muddle.

The French Socialist delegates to-day expressed a desire to be separated from the French Anarchists, and this gave rise to an excited debate, which culminated in the spokesman of the American delegation crying out: "Anarchy is the separation of the Socialists from the Anarchists." Immediately scores of opponents of the separation idea rose to their feet, following and shrieking in fury.

Chairman Hyndman rang his bell and called for order amid screams of "Vive l'anarchie!" and "Vive la révolution!" and the speaker, Mr. Saxon, explained, and seeing that all attempts to restore order were useless, Chairman Hyndman peremptorily adjourned the sittings, and the delegates separated amid the greatest uproar.

TWO weeks ago Mrs. Faist noticed that her husband's mind was again getting weak. She observed, also, a strange symptom, that of an itching skin, which was not relieved by any treatment during the day, and at night he continued to scratch himself.

At 1 o'clock yesterday morning Faist got out some clean clothes, sponges, and bits of soap, and began to wash his face. He found that he was itching all over his body, and he continued to scratch himself until he was exhausted.

Next he took a large sponge, and, awakening the doctor, he was washed by him. Then he took a large sponge, and, awakening the doctor, he was washed by him.
